

Los Alamos Medical Center congratulates all participants in the Los Alamos Youth Soccer League!

LAMC supports striving for excellence in individual and team endeavors, offering healthy entertainment alternatives, and, especially fostering youth and family participation.

The new health care system places a great emphasis on healthy lifestyle, and activities such as those provided by LAYSL contribute the kinds of opportunities needed to make positive choices. We commend all involved – participants, parents, sponsors and audience members on their community partnership effort!

Los Alamos Medical Center